

Community Information and Support Session

for family members and other people who care about someone who is suffering from

Borderline Personality Disorder

Learn how to better support and maintain relationships with someone you care about who suffers from Borderline Personality Disorder.

Learn how to better support yourself and other family members while caring for someone who suffers from Borderline Personality Disorder.

- When: 11.45 am to 1 pm Tuesday 3 October 2017
- Where: Barkly Motorlodge. 43 Main Road, Bakery Hill (Ballarat)
- Lunch: Provided
- Register: by Wednesday 27 September 2017
Limited seating available so register early
- Register with: your name and contact phone number to Carmel Haynes, Coordinator. Tel. 0437 817 159
Email carmel.haynes@centacareballarat.org.au

The session is being presented by Dr Peter McKenzie who is a clinical family therapist, family practice consultant and academic from the Bouverie Centre, Family Institute, Brunswick. Dr. Peter McKenzie's work focuses specifically on clients and families living with complex needs and Borderline Personality Disorder. He currently holds the role of Carer Academic at the Bouverie Centre and is a private consultant.

This event is being sponsored by the Australian Borderline Personality Disorder Foundation and Centacare, Catholic Diocese of Ballarat, Inc. It is supporting the National Borderline Personality Disorder Awareness Week, 1–7 October 2017