PRINCIPLES FOR WORKING WITH PEOPLE WITH BPD.

Be respectful.

Show empathy and a caring attitude.

Be consistent and reliable.

Listen and pay attention to the person when they describe their current experience and take it seriously.

Validate the person's current emotional state and allow the person to express strong emotions.

Maintain a non-judgemental attitude.

Stay calm.

Communicate clearly.

Express hope about the person's capacity for change and give encouragement, but don't give false assurances about the ease and speed of recovery.
