

Bursaries for Travel or Accommodation to attend the 6th Annual National BPD Conference 6th October 2106

1.1 Eligibility

A limited number of bursaries are available to assist carers and consumers from rural NSW and interstate to attend the conference. To be eligible to receive a bursary applicant either have a diagnosis or identify with a diagnosis of Borderline Personality Disorder (BPD) or of caring for or supporting a person with either a diagnosis or who identifies with a diagnosis of BPD. Preference will be given to those not in paid employment and working in a consumer/carer peer/support/consultant/advocacy role in a volunteer/unpaid capacity.

1.2 Amount

The 2016 travel and accommodation bursaries for the 6th National Annual BPD Conference are indicated below:

- $300.00 – Western Australia
- $200.00 – Tasmania
- $150.00 – South Australia & Northern Territory
- $100.00 – Queensland & Victoria
- TBC – New South Wales

in certain circumstances, at the discretion of the Australian BPD Foundation, a higher amount may be paid based on need and depending upon the number of requests for assistance.

1.3 Bursary Allocation

In order to be considered for a bursary, please email admin@bpdfoundation.org.au with your name, contact details, involvement with BPD consumer/carer networks and a short paragraph explaining your need for this funding.

Payments will be made to each applicant via cheque on presentation of appropriate travel / accommodation receipts.

1.4 Limitations

Support needs assistance bursaries will be determined on the basis of the applicant's location, the degree of difficulty associated with attending the Forum and the budget constraints for the Forum. Speakers may receive additional support.

The amount paid will be determined by the Conference Planning Committee taking into consideration distance travelled, your financial situation and the demand.
